

Augusta County Historical Society
Acc # 381
Why We are At War
Date of Collection

Size: One book

Scope & Content: Speeches;

A World League for Peace – January 22, 1917.

The Severance of Diplomatic Relations with Germany – February 3, 1917.

Request for a Grant of Power – February 26, 1917.

We Must Accept War – April 2, 1917.

A State of War – April 6, 1917.

Speak, Act and Serve Together – April 15, 1917.

Historical/Biographical Note:

The book presents, in convenient form the memorable messages by President Wilson in January, February and April 1917 leading up to America's involvement in World War I.

The book includes a handwritten note from Sir Walter Lawrence, British War Commissioner.

Organization/Arrangement:

Miscellaneous: