A Brief Sketch of the Origin of the Yount Family in America
1600-1850

Size: 1 folder

Scope & Content

Brief descriptions of the following Yount families and their migrations are included Hans George, Andrew, Hans Rudolph, Rudolph, John, Leonard and Jacob. The Augusta/Rockingham branch of the family is described from Hans Rudolph who arrived with his widowed mother in Philadelphia on the ship "Ann" in 1749. After his mother's death, he migrated to Rockingham where he lived until his death

Historical/Biographical Note

During the early years of research most members of the family believed they were of German ancestry. According to W.C Yount this belief was erroneous; the Yount/Jundt was of Alsatian origin. It was a purely Huguenot family
