

Augusta County Historical Society
Website Finding Aid
Acc #572
JMU Sociology & Anthropology Collection
1900-1913

Size: 2 Manuscripts

Scope & Content

Two reports prepared by James Madison U. Department of Sociology and Anthropology on the historical-archaeological aspects of (1) the Confederate military complex on Shenandoah Mountain in Augusta County and (2) mining, timbering, and cattle raising in the Stokesville area in early 20th century. The first contains many first person accounts and both contain photographs and maps.

Historical/Biographical Note

Organization/Arrangement

Located in the ACHS Library , Augusta County section, marked AC-G.

Miscellaneous

Some names of interest are William Ramsey, George Wilson, Charles Cramer, Clarence "Boxie" Loyd, and Donny Michael. Places of interest are Mountain House, Crozet Turnpike, Georgia Camp, and C&W Railroad.