Augusta County Road Orders 1745-1769
September 1998

Size: One Book (paperback)

Scope & Content:

Nineteenth entry in the Historic Roads of Virginia series by The Virginia Transportation Research Council (Then the Virginia Highway & Transportation Research Council) in 1973.

The road history projects establish the feasibility of studies of early road networks and their use in the environmental review process.

Includes:

Maps of County boundaries in mid 1770's.
Extracts of road orders with reference to location of the complete orders.
Index of subjects; other Counties, personal names, water features and roads.

Historical/Biographical Note:

Katherine Gentry Bushman (Mrs. William Bushman) of Staunton, Virginia.

First volume of published road orders to be concerned wholly with the territory west of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Coverage of vast parent Counties laid the foundation for additional research over a broad area of Virginia westward from the fall line.

Organization/Arrangement:

Only one paperback book.
