

Augusta County Historical Society

Acc # 833

Autograph Book of Mary Ellen Lambert, Postcard, and Picture
1919-1941

Size: 1 Folder

Scope & Content

The collection contains an autograph album belonging to Mary Ellen Lambert, dated Dec. 25, 1935. It contains autographs with notes and rhymes written by friends and family dated from 12/25/1935 to 5/4/1941. The collection also contains an Easter postcard postmarked in Hagerstown, MD on Apr. 19, 1919 from Walker to Miss Margie Wilson at 940 W. Main in Staunton, VA. An unidentified photo of two men is also included in the collection.

Historical/Biographical Note

Main Street in Staunton is today Beverly Street. Mary Ellen was in the third grade in 1935. The book contains autographs of Robert Lee Madison, founder of Western Carolina Teacher's College who was born in the house where Mary Ellen lived and Robert Pierson Canterbury, great-great grandson of the original owner of the Sears house.

Organization/Arrangement

Autograph book is in folder.

Postcard and photograph are in an envelope in the folder

Miscellaneous