

Augusta County Historical Society
Acc #0847
Shenandoah Valley Rural Heritage Foundation Files
2001-2007

Size: 9 boxes of files

Scope & Content

Extensive records of the Shenandoah Valley Rural Heritage Foundation, including membership records, financial statements and bank records, records of formation, contracts with the County of Augusta, board minutes, extensive historic research on both the Moses house and Gochenour/Yount house restoration plans, engineering report, newspaper articles, information on Grandma Moses and Mt. Airy, photos, preliminary documentation of the properties for applying for historic designations, fund raising efforts and activities, newsletters, forms and letters of dissolution.

Historical/Biographical Note

Grandma Moses was a painter who lived in Augusta County from 1887 until 1905. The Moses house was on the second farm that she and her husband owned. She began to paint after returning to her home state of New York in 1905.

Organization/Arrangement

Original arrangement as donated to ACHS by SVRHF.

Miscellaneous