

The Holidays Are Nearly Here: GIVE THE GIFT OF HISTORY!

We would love to assist with your holiday gift giving.
Here are several suggestions to consider.

- You can purchase tickets to the April 27, 2015 Annual Banquet featuring Turk McCleskey. His newly released book, The Road to Black Ned's Forge: A Story of Race, Sex, and Trade on the Colonial American Frontier will be the subject of his fascinating talk about life on Augusta's early frontier. Make your gift of tickets even more special with a copy of McCleskey's book.
- Images of America – Augusta County by Nancy Sorrells on behalf of the Augusta County Historical Society, highlights important collections within the historical society used to illustrate this book about long-remembered and long-gone sites and scenes from Augusta County history.
- Kenton Harper: Editor, Citizen, Soldier, written by Harper's great-grandson, Thomas Tabb Jeffries, III, chronicles the founding and long-time editor of the Staunton Spectator.
- Give a gift of membership to ACHS. If you are already a member, you know all the benefits of membership including invitations to Stuart Talks, the Annual Banquet, Spring and Fall meetings, discounts on ACHS publications, newsletters, and the yearly Bulletin.

To make your selections, fill out the order form below and return to the ACHS office by December 15. No guarantees of Christmas delivery after that date! Checks can be made out to ACHS and mailed to Augusta County Historical Society, P. O. Box 686, Staunton, VA 24402-0686.
